

The Amazon by José Cláudio da Silva

Aboard the “Garbe”, with Paulo Vanzolini

A journey thru' imagination

Artist José Claudio da Silva took an incredible trip in 1975. He went to the Amazon rainforest and painted landscapes, rivers, plants and a lot of different creatures! Where in the world would you love to travel to and experience the wilderness??? Think about and research: what any new and curious creatures would you encounter?

Make a very colorful drawing or painting and send it to us at monitoria@sp.gov.br. Your artwork will be published on the Acervo dos Palácios Facebook and Instagram pages!
